SELF-SERVE CONTROLLER

The washlink self service controller simplifies timer control and controls your self service equipment income. Proven industrial PLC technology combined with a familiar Windows interface provide the car wash operator with unmatched reliability and ease of use.

Features and Benefits:
- 16 or 32 functions standard per enclosure with unlimited expansion
- industry proven components from siemens worldwide and dell computers
- pc windows user screens for equipment setup, car counts, fault alerts, etc
- hand-auto switches for all functions
- double pole 15amp isolation relays on all functions
- all functions individually fused 24vac output with blown fuse indicators
- set hours of operation and day of week operation
- control amount of time from office or remote location
- control amount of money and run cycle from office or remote location
- no more expensive coin accumulators
- allow buy up time, count down control, end of time control
- sql database for each piece of equipment
- track revenue on each piece of equipment
- gives a checks and balance to money collected
- reliable and proven industrial plc
- friendly windows user interface
- equipment stays working even with pc failure
- industrial ethernet communications
- ul listed